Posting 01-2022

Strengthening
Children and Families
for a better future.

January 11, 2022

Chatham-Kent Children's Services requires one (1) Early Developmental Support Worker available to start as soon as possible. This is a permanent, full-time position.

Hours of work are 70 hours bi-weekly covering all shifts of the program:

- before school programming
- day programming
- after school programming

The incumbent may be scheduled in before school programming plus day programming, or day programming plus after school programming.

The worker will provide preventative and intervention services to children in a childcare environment to enhance the child's functioning in daily living. The children generally are high needs with either physical, cognitive, behavioural or emotional difficulties and the client and childcare setting require additional staffing support to enable better integration into the childcare program.

Qualifications: An Early Childhood Education diploma, Developmental Services Worker diploma, Educational Assistant/Support diploma, or Child and Youth Care diploma; proven organizational and time management skills; a valid drivers license and use of a personal vehicle; good written and oral communication skills as well as computer literate; the ability to communicate in French is an asset; lifting may be required.

Salary Range: Pay Grid 10
